

Come Face to Face with a Leopard Shark for Fun!

Celebrate National Zoo and Aquarium Month with a Trip to the Seattle Aquarium for the month of June.

Now is the perfect time to dive into one of Seattle's most engaging attractions located on the downtown waterfront. This marine wonder showcases the incredible diversity of the Pacific Northwest's aquatic life.

One of the most unique features of the aquarium is its Window on Washington Waters exhibit. This 120,000-gallon tank replicates the vibrant underwater ecosystems of the Puget Sound and features daily diver shows where guests can watch and interact with divers through the glass. The aquarium is also known for its adorable sea otters and the interactive Life on the Edge tide pools, where visitors can touch sea stars and anemones.

Whether you're curious about marine conservation or just want to see a giant Pacific octopus up close, the Seattle Aquarium offers an educational and memorable experience for all ages.

SOUL Food Celebration Time!

June is National Soul Food Appreciation Month—a time to honor the rich flavors and cultural roots of soul food, a cuisine born in the American South and cherished for its comforting, hearty dishes. If that sounds tasty to you, we have a few locations for you to try.

Island Soul offers a fusion of Caribbean and Louisiana soul food, serving up favorites like jerk chicken, oxtail stew, and gumbo. Known for its lively vibe and great happy hour, Island Soul has two locations: Columbia City (4869 Rainier Ave S) and Kirkland (312 Central Way).

Fat's Chicken and Waffles adds New Orleans flair to Seattle's food scene, with crispy fried chicken and honey butter biscuits that hit the sweet-savory spot. Find it in (2726 E Cherry St) in the Central District.

Soulful Dishes, also at 2726 E Cherry St, features classic comfort food with vegan and seafood options. Their fall-off-the-bone ribs are a standout, alongside a rotating menu of daily specials.

Whether you're a longtime fan or new to soul food, this month is the perfect time to support local restaurants and enjoy the flavors that tell a story of resilience, creativity, and community.

Fremont Fair Celebrates 34 Years of Art, Music & Mischief

Get ready, Seattle! The 34th Annual Fremont Fair returns June 21–22, bringing its signature blend of creativity, community, and quirky fun to the streets of the Fremont neighborhood. A beloved tradition since 1991, the fair kicks off the summer with a weekend full of music, local art, food trucks, craft beer, and bold self-expression.

One of the highlights is the Solstice Parade—a crowd favorite known for its whimsical floats, giant puppets, and the famous body-painted cyclists who lead the way with joy and color (and not much else!). It's a celebration of freedom, imagination, and community spirit like no other.

The fair features over 300 vendors, including handmade crafts, vintage treasures, and sustainable goods. With multiple stages showcasing live music, beer gardens, and family-friendly fun, there's truly something for everyone.

Admission is free, but donations help support the Fremont Arts Council and other local nonprofits.
